

National Eating Disorder Awareness Week

Going Sane Film Screening & Panelist Discussion

February 23, 2020

2:00 pm – 5:00 pm

The Little Theater

240 East Ave., Rochester, NY

Theater #5

Follow several families as they face the challenges and barriers to securing mental health treatment for their loved ones.

Panelists

- Jeff Levenkron, PhD – U of R Clinical Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Psychotherapist; presenting on Anxiety
- Ann Griep, MD – U of R Clinical Assistant Professor and Psychotherapist; presenting on Depression
- Anca Seger, MD – Medical Director for Adult Ambulatory Behavioral Health at Rochester Regional Health; presenting on Substance Use
- Dayton Walsh, PhD – Licensed Clinical Psychologist in Private Practice; presenting on Eating Disorders & Comorbidity
- Mike Scharf, MD – U of R Associate Professor of Clinical Psychiatry; presenting Family Centered Treatment
- Mary Tantillo, PhD, PMHCNS-BC – U of R Professor of Clinical Nursing; Moderator

RSVP to Kayla Bradford @ 585-276-6102 or kayla_bradford@urmc.rochester.edu by February 21st. Seating is limited.

Sponsored by the Western NY Comprehensive Care Center for Eating Disorders, a partnership between the University of Rochester School of Nursing and Golisano Children's Hospital, funded by the NYS Dept. of Health; in affiliation with The Healing Connection, Inc.

